All people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field. The grass wITHERS and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord endures for ever.

A man with a long beard and a head covering is shown from the chest up, holding a large, golden-brown fishing net. He is looking upwards and to the right. The background is a clear blue sky and a body of water with mountains in the distance. The net is draped over his shoulder and extends downwards.

1 Peter 4v1-11

¹ Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because those who have suffered in their bodies are done with sin. ² As a result, they do not live the rest of their earthly lives for evil human desires, but rather for the will of God.

1 Peter 4v1-11

³ For you have spent enough time in the past doing what pagans choose to do - living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry. ⁴ They are surprised that you do not join them in their reckless, wild living, and they heap abuse on you. ⁵ But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4v1-11

⁶ For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

1 Peter 4v1-11

⁷ The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. ⁸ Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. ⁹ Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. ¹⁰ Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

1 Peter 4v1-11

¹¹ If you speak, you should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If you serve, you should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.
