

St Barnabas Mission Partners

Jo Jowett lives in Birmingham with her husband, Mark, and works for Global Connections, an organisation that promotes and facilitates mission in the UK and overseas. Jo and Global Connections fulfil a vital role in resourcing mission around the world.

Latest news from Jo

WORK: "We're so thankful for a great day at GoFest in May – a one day mission event Global Connections organises for those interested or considering world mission, held at All Nations Christian College. 300 people came for an inspiring day with dynamic speakers and a fast-moving programme on a wide range of themes.

Having been without an Executive Director for 6 months, the Board of Global Connections are close to making an appointment. We are also advertising for a number of other posts, including a Chief Operating Officer - so it's a time of significant change for our team.

I'll be overseeing our SERVICEstation team at events over the summer, including 3 weeks at the Keswick Convention; we still need to fill some gaps in the teams."

FAMILY: "My mum has just had major back surgery and I am thankful my diary has been clear enough for me to be able to care for her after coming out of hospital. She has a number of health problems, so we've been amazed and thankful to God for how well she's doing."

OTHER MINISTRY: "We're delighted to have just completed training for 17 new recruits to our City Pastors team, after losing a number of team members last year. This has been a great boost to us as we continue our vital work in Birmingham's night-time economy every weekend."

Give thanks:

- For the 300 people who attended the recent inspiring GoFest event
- That Jo has had time to care for her mum, and that she is doing so well after her back surgery
- For the 17 new recruits for the City Pastors team

Please pray:

- That those who attended GoFest will have been inspired to greater engagement in God's mission locally and globally
- For the many different aspects of Jo's work and the associated decision-making whilst awaiting the appointment of a new leader for Global Connections
- For wisdom for Global Connections as they appoint an Executive Director and other staff
- That the gaps in the SERVICEstation teams will be filled soon, and that the summer events will be fruitful for God's Kingdom.

Please remember to tear this slip off your bulletin or pick up a prayer postcard from the World Mission Support notice board if you would like to remember Jo in prayer. If you would like more information about mission or are interested in being part of World Mission Support please email: clairefranks@stbamabas.co.uk
