

St Barnabas Mission Partner

Ann-Marie Wilson is a CMS mission partner with a specific ministry that aims to prevent female genital mutilation (FGM). Her primary focus is Africa and she is working through the charity 28 Too Many which she set up in 2010 and is executive director of. 28 Too Many undertakes country-specific research and shares knowledge with influencers, including UK, national and local governments, policy makers, media, community activists, faith leaders, educationalists, social workers, medical teams to prevent FGM and to protect girls from perpetrators who need to understand that prosecution will follow committing FGM in countries where it is illegal.

Ann-Marie completed a 2 year course of chemotherapy for lymphoma earlier this year.

Ann-Marie became a Pioneer Lay Minister in the Church of England a year ago.

Latest news from Ann-Marie:

A major highlight of the last few months has been my 28 mile wheelchair marathon in June, lasting 12 and a half hours, raising funds for 28 Too Many. Different supporters pushed me in a wheelchair for a mile each and we raised over £14,000 towards the updates to our country reports (the 14 we have so far completed, and the remaining 14 we are still to do).

As we headed into the summer, the team worked hard on the final stages of our FGM law project together with over 100 lawyers from TrustLaw, the pro-bono legal programme of the Thomson Reuters Foundation. We have so far produced 29 country FGM law reports which we have been publishing throughout the summer, with the final compilation report due to launch this month.

Over the summer, I spoke at New Wine and the CMS conference, as well as enjoying visits to friends in Cornwall, Somerset, Dorset, Hampshire and Guildford. I went to Malling Abbey again at the end of August for a time of rest, reflection, worship and prayer. Last week I came back from a lovely holiday visiting cities in Greece.

Give thanks for:

- The success of the wheelchair marathon
- The ongoing launch of country law reports and all the help with this from TrustLaw
- The time for rest and holiday Ann-Marie enjoyed over the summer

Please pray for:

- Ann-Marie's health to fully recuperate, and for full healing of her body so that she can continue her work with 28 Too Many and CMS
- Ann-Marie's work as honorary chaplain at the local hospice
- The effectiveness of the country law reports in helping to eradicate the practice of FGM
