

St Barnabas Mission Partners

Jo Jowett lives in Birmingham with her husband, Mark, and works for Global Connections, an organisation that promotes and facilitates mission in the UK and overseas. Jo and Global Connections fulfil a vital role in resourcing mission around the world. Jo and Mark are also involved in City Pastors in Birmingham.

Latest news from Jo:

The Easter and summer event seasons provide an amazing opportunity to engage with literally hundreds of people. Our teams in SERVICEstation, our dedicated advice area, do a great job in helping people explore their gifting, calling and service opportunities. Now that the Easter events have finished, we're preparing for the next lot of events, the first of which is GOfest on 8 June at Capernwray Hall, then the Keswick Convention in July.

Another key task we've had in recent weeks has been reviewing our strategy at Global Connections. The process is coming to an end, but it has been encouraging receiving feedback from our network and rethinking what we need to do in the future.

We've been delighted to launch a new website for City Pastors – www.citypastors.co.uk

On a personal note, Mark's dad underwent a seven-hour operation on 15 May following a diagnosis of cancer.

Give thanks:

- That our new CEO, John Baxter-Brown, and our new COO (Chief Operating Officer), Andy Law, have got off to a great start in their respective roles
- For the many Christians who were helped through SERVICEstation during the weeks of Spring Harvest
- That plans are progressing well for GOfest, with encouraging events for church leaders over the past few months

Please pray:

- That the remaining planning for GOfest is inspired by the Holy Spirit, and that a good number will attend
- For wisdom as we take the new strategy for Global Connections forward
- That Mark's dad recovers and adjusts well following his operation, and for wisdom regarding ongoing treatment
