

St Barnabas Mission Associate

Richard Harvey works with Jews for Jesus. He writes, teaches, trains and mentors on what it means to be a disciple, and particularly a Jewish disciple of Jesus.

He is currently Interim UK Director of Jews for Jesus and continues teaching Old Testament theology and other classes at All Nations Christian College in Hertfordshire.

Latest news from Richard:

I recently returned from Vienna, where I was at a conference of Catholics, Protestants and Messianic Jews. Our aim was to help the whole church understand more of the riches of its Jewish heritage of faith, and the exciting significance of a growing number of Jewish disciples of Jesus around the world and in every stream of the church today.

At Jews for Jesus we are going through challenging times with great opportunities. We have a team of about six people helping Christians witness to their Jewish friends, understanding the Jewish roots of their faith, and growing as disciples; we hope to have three young Israelis joining us shortly. We are looking to move out of our present premises in Hendon to find more appropriate space in a better location for ministry; and we are starting a weekly podcast, "Jew in the Pew", about Jewish disciples of Jesus and the issues that affect them.

My wife Monica needs to watch her energy levels but loves helping Rebekah and Iain with our three grandchildren, who live in High Barnet. I have a problem with my knee and might need an operation.

Give thanks:

- For the conference in Vienna
- For new workers in the UK
- For opportunities to meet Ultra-Orthodox Jewish disciples
- For the ongoing responses and follow-up from recent outreaches

Please pray:

- For speedy visa processing for the 3 Israelis joining the team
- For a new ministry premises
- For help with technical and production aspects of the podcast
- For Monica's health and Richard's knee
